The happiest time is now.

BY S. LOVER. Talk not to me of future bliss! Talk not to me of joys gone by! For us, the happiest hour is this,

When love bids time to fly. The future-doubt may overcast, To shadow Hope's young brow; Oblivion's veil may shroud the past, The happiest time is now.

Though flowers, in spicy vases thrown, Some odor yet exhale; Their fragrance, ere the bloom was flown. Breathed sweeter on the gale;

Like faded flowers, each parted bliss Let memory keep, but how Can joy that's past be like to this? The happiest time is now! Unmark'd our course before us lies

O'er time's eternal tide, And soon the sparkling ripple dies We raise, as on we glide; Our banks the brightest bubbles fling For ever from their prow ;-Then let us gaily sail and sing,

"The happiest hour is now."
